

FIRST RESPONDER

In-house course: Food Safety

Equipment/Facilities: iLearn module + Virtual Classroom

Regulations/Industry Best Practice reference:

Adult First Aid/ CPR/ AED by the America Red Cross

Certification: OSM

SCOPE

The training has been designed and developed to assist the participants in planning, managing and teaching them the role of First Responder. The goals and objectives of this training is to improve the quality of emergency medical care. The training is designed to instruct the participant to the level of First Responder, who serves as the vital link in the chain of the health care team. This training includes skills necessary for the individual to provide medical care with limited amount of equipment.

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

Specifically, after successful completion of the training, the participant will be capable of performing the following functions at the minimum entry level.

- Educate personnel in the prevention of injury.
- Understands basic medical-legal principles.
- Identify their function in uncommon situations (medical emergencies).
- Recognize the seriousness of the patient condition or extent of injuries to assess requirements for medical care.
- Administer appropriate medical care for life threatening injuries relative to airway, breathing and circulation.
- Recognize an emergency event and activate the system.
- Initiate emergency medical care.
- Effective utilization of available resources.

ENTRY STANDARD

- The course is open to all seafarers.
- Taking the course does not have any minimum age requirement or other pre-requisite.
- Must have finished the iLearn module

COURSE DURATION

4.0 HOURS