

COMMAND AND COMMERCIAL MANAGEMENT FOR BULKERS

In-house course: Command and Commercial Management for Bulklers

Equipment/Facilities: iLearn module + Virtual Classroom

Regulations/Industry Best Practice reference:

- IMO
- STCW

Certification: OSM

SCOPE & PURPOSE

This course intends to provide essential knowledge, dealing with the commercial aspect of bulk carrier and its trade, and the accompanying command responsibility of the shipboard management team.

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this training, the participants shall be able to:

- Determine the parties involved in the bulk carrier business and trade partners
- Enumerate company specific goals and procedures for commercial aspects of dry bulkers
- Know the importance of all cargo and port documentations for bulk carrier
- Common operational and cargo issues onboard dry bulk carrier
- Enumerate and discuss operational challenges in shipping industry and how to deal with it

Entry Standards

- The course is open to all licensed deck management level

COURSE DURATION (Training hours indicated does not include offline activities/ or exercises)

2 days (including the iLearn module)