

SPECIAL TRAINING PROGRAM FOR NEW THIRD OFFICERS

In-house course: Special Training Program for New Third Officers

Equipment/Facilities: iLearn module + Virtual Classroom

Regulations/Industry Best Practice reference:

- STCW

Certification: OSM

---

SCOPE & PURPOSE

This training course is designed to enable the candidates to successfully demonstrate some elements of the STCW Code, Table A-II/1 that specifies the minimum standard of competence for officers in charge of a navigational watch for operational level.

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this training, the participants shall be able to:

- Know and understand navigation procedures and radar watchkeeping.
- Explain proper procedure on appraisal, planning, execution and monitoring on passage planning and chart works.
- Create a comprehensive passage plan using navigational aid.
- Apply the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea in practice.
- Describe different bridge equipment and its use, including maintenance and routine checks.
- Explain the duties and responsibilities of an OOW during navigation.
- Gain understanding of basic GMDSS and navigational warnings and the importance of filing and recording.
- Explain basic ship handling and maneuvering.
- Understand the condition and when to call the Master.
- Compute basic Navigational computation (ETA, speed required, etc.).
- Gain knowledge in the requirements and procedures of port state control and vetting inspection

Entry Standards

- The course is open to all prospective deck officers

COURSE DURATION (Training hours indicated does not include offline activities/ or exercises)

iLearn: 4.0 hours

Virtual Class: 20.0 hours